'He ain't heavy ...' Wanna bet?

Saturday, for the first time in the six-year history of the annual North American Wife-Carrying Championship, a "wife" served as the carrier. Anna Sleator of Cambridge, Mass. carried John Lund of Wenham, Mass. through the 278-yard course at Sunday River Ski Resort. Here, (from left) they emerge from the water hazard, only to slip and fall. But Lund helped Sleator right herself, and they continued on to the finish. They placed last among the 18 teams competing, but were favorites with the crowd. The competition was won by Erhin and April Armstrong of Boston, who are now eligible to compete in the Wife Carrying World Championships in Finland next summer.

MDOT: Rabbit Road bridge is unsafe for truck-size loads

By MICHAEL DANIELS

The Maine Department of Transportation wants Bethel to post the Rabbit Road bridge over the Alder River for passenger vehicles only, or for vehicles weighing less than three tons.

Then, "if the bridge is not repaired or replaced very soon, it should be closed to protect life and property of the public," according to a letter to town officials from John E. Buxton, MDOT assistant bridge maintenance engineer.

The problem is corrosion in three of the nine, 16-inch steel beams supporting the roadbed. The corrosion (see photo) was discovered during a routine bridge inspection, which MDOT conducts every two years.

"The beams have holes through the webs and they are crushing the abutments," Buxton reported (see photo).

Town Manager Scott Cole presented Buxton's report and recommendations to the selectmen at their regular meeting last week.

The board took no action at the time, pending a further inspection of the bridge by Cole, Road Foreman Scott Sumner and other folks familiar with such structures.

"I don't know anything about bridges," said Board Chairman Stan Howe. "What do you notice about them when they're really dangerous?"

"The first thing is holes," replied Selectman Jack Cross, a contractor.

If the bridge is posted for no more than three tons, it could severely impact the three residences that are across the bridge from Route 26.

"If you post that for three tons, there won't be a truck that will go across it," Cross

A routine state inspection found that three of the nine beams supporting the Rabbit Road bridge were seriously eaten away by corrosion.

60-lot subdivision proposed near Puzzle Mt. in Newry

Same firm, MaineVest, also has megaproject under review in nearby Andover

By ALISON ALOISIO

A proposed 60-lot subdivision on 1,800 acres off Route 26 in Newry was informally presented to the Planning Board last week.

The development is proposed by MaineVest LLC — the same marketing company that is currently before the Andover Planning Board with a 5,000-acre subdivision proposal.

The Newry project is near the Andover one, in the Puzzle Mountain area. The Newry proposal includes a section of Great Brook, according to Tom DuBois of MainLand Development, MaineVest's consultant.

The subdivision would be located on former Hancock Lumber land.

The developers plan to set aside more than half the land as a conservation easement, DuBois said. The house lots, averaging five acres each, would be located near the center, with the conservation land ringing them.

"We're not going to max out the land [with house lots]," said DuBois.

He said MaineVest is talking with the Mahoosuc Land Trust

Suspected W'stock vandals nabbed

By ALISON ALOISIO

Charges are pending against two local juveniles after a vandalism spree last week in Woodstock. The incidents resulted in an estimated $10,000 in damages, according to Maine State Trooper Daniel Hanson.

Hanson said he expects two juveniles to be charged, and he plans to talk with two other juvenile suspects in the case. The vandalism took place overnight on Oct. 5.

Rocks were thrown through windows in three locations: the Woodstock Elementary School, a ga-

Local musician is now playing for a worldwide audience

By BETSEY FOSTER

Musician and composer Conni St. Pierre lives quietly with her husband, Ted, on the outskirts of Bethel. While some folks here know her name, most don't, but in another community, the international New Age music community, she is widely known and her work admired.

For example, "Wind and Wire," the New Age music program of National Public Radio named Conni's "Between the Branches" CD the number one New Age instrumental 2003.

Recently it was the number three downloaded New Age recording in Greece.

And her music is regularly reviewed in such well-known trade publications as "The Blue Divide" and "All Media Guide."

Conni is a musician by profession and passion.

Her rise to fame began with the production of a three-CD series, the "Legends Trilogy," which was released over a seven-year period beginning in 1996.

The music was composed while she and Ted were caring for elderly relatives who had Parkinson's and Alzheimer's diseases.

"They came to live with us, and I found I needed to have a

Stress is rubbed out in Telstar library

"I bet I'm the only library in the state that has a masseuse," says Telstar librarian Kelly Fraser.

The school library has, in fact, had one for four years.

She is Sharon Lyon of Bethel, who goes to Telstar once a week to give relaxing massages to students and staff.

Lyon operates Professional Massage Therapy in Bethel. She got the idea to offer free massages after taking part in an annual health fair program for Mountain Valley and Dirigo high school students four years ago.

MEANINGFUL CONNECTIONS

To the Editor:

Dedication of the Androscoggin River Recreational Bridge, hosted on Saturday by the Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce, was an historic moment for the region. The significance was not lost on the speakers in attendance, from our governor, congressman, state representative, state senator, to the chair of board of selectmen. Their remarks were notable for recognizing the numerous people and entities and different levels of government that worked together to make the bridge and pathway possible, and the resulting benefits to health, safety, enjoyment, and the economy.

A massive task now faces the community: to make meaningful connections to and from the bridge and existing Bethel Pathway, by raising the capital and donations of labor and machinery to construct multi-use trails in public rights of way and land of willing property owners. A generous leadership pledge of $10,000 worth of construction services from Savage Land Development, LLC will serve in part as a required local match to state grants now being sought, and as a challenge to each of us to see how we can help. Pledges from other contractors, donated services from professionals, and financial contributions from citizens and businesses will all be required. The first major grant proposal now being written would extend and secure both bike/pedestrian and snowmobile access under Route 2 on the historic cattle crossing, and then to the North Road.

A number of businesses have already provided direct support to the efforts of Bethel Area Trails with significant pledges, cash donations, or services: Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce; Bethel Outdoor Adventure; Kathleen Ford, L.A., Landscape Architect; John and Tracy Mason; BIG Adventure Center; REMAX in the Mountains; Hanley & Associates Attorneys; Sunday River Ski Resort. Local snowmobile clubs, town officials and boards, diverse groups, and individuals continue to work with, or in parallel with, our committee toward common goals.

Bethel Area Trails strives to coordinate the efforts of trail users and user groups to facilitate the creation of trails in the greater Bethel region. The committee meets monthly and actively seeks the participation, input, and assistance of interested parties.

'HURRAH,' YOU WERE GREAT

To the Editor:

Responding to Beth Brough's letter praising us for our work at the District Exchange Thrift Shop, we say, "Thank you, Beth, for your kind words," but most of the credit goes to the hardworking "Caring Cadre" of volunteers who scrubbed, painted, hammered, hauled, sorted, swept and sweat in the service of the District Exchange. They are: Larry Engdahl, Alan Marcotte, Dean Walker, Walt Hatch, Walt Brough, Dexter Stowell, Marilyn Sahlberg, Melody Bonnema, Carol Nielson, Marna McGinniss, Linda Gamble, Lucy Nordahl, Marlene Engdahl, Beth Brough, the Rev. Ginger Rickman, Carol Hatch, Caroline Gould, Chris Trefethen and daughter Sophie, Susan Herlihy, Jane Chandler, Tineke Ouwinga, UCC teens and coordinator, Susan Isham, and many others whose names we may have missed. Please forgive us if we omitted you and let us know.

To all who helped: a huge "Hurrah" — you were great!

VOTE NO ON ONE

To the Editor:

This year our state government passed a law, which makes discrimination against people who happen to have partners of the same gender illegal in the state of Maine. A yes vote on Nov. 8 would repeal this law, thus making discrimination legal.

The U.S. Constitution states:

1) Section 2 — State Citizens, Extradition: "The citizens of each state shall be entitled to all Privileges and Immunities of Citizens in the several states." (Many states do have laws which make it illegal to discriminate because of sexual orientation.)
2) Amendment XIV ... "nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law, nor deny any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

Therefore, a yes vote goes against what the Constitution says. I sincerely hope that all rational thinking citizens will get themselves to the polls on Nov. 8 and vote No on 1.

SLICK START—Under rainy skies Saturday, the recently-completed recreational bridge over the Androscoggin River was dedicated. Dignitaries offering remarks during the 3 p.m. ceremony praised the cooperative efforts and perseverance displayed in making the 400-foot-long structure a reality. The bridge will provide safe passage for snowmobilers, cross-country skiers, walkers and hikers, among other recreationists. Until now, they were forced to cross the Route 2 highway bridge, often sharing the space with 18-wheelers. Following Saturday's ribbon-cutting ceremony on the north side of the bridge, participants walked across the span, led by (from left) state Sen. Bruce Bryant, U.S. Congressman Mike Michaud, Gov. John Baldacci, and Robin Zinchuk, executive director of the Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce. All spoke at the dedication. Other local officials offering remarks included Stan Howe of the Bethel Historical Society, state Rep. Arian Jodrey, and Steve Wight of the Mahoosuc Land Trust Trails Committee. (Photo: A. Aloisio) said. "They won't even think about it."

Fellow Selectman Reggie Brown agreed.

"Is Dick [Littlefield, one of the affected residents] going to carry his oil across in five-gallon barrels?" asked Brown.

On a more serious note, he added, "If you post it, you can't even put a fire truck across it."

The current bridge was built in 1971, to replace a wooden bridge at the site that had been damaged by a truck, according to Bob Davis, road foreman at the time.

Despite the fact that the bridge provides the only year-round access to the three residences, the state classifies it as "low use or redundant." (The area can also be reached by the Mason Road, from Locke Mills; and the western end of the Rabbit Road, from Vernon Street. But both of these are unimproved, and unplowed, Jeep trails.)

Because of the bridge's classification, there is very little likelihood of state funds helping to repair or replace it, Cole said.

Wednesday, just prior to the local inspection of the bridge, Cole said he expected some form of posting would probably be necessary.

The state has no power to enforce the posting recommendation, Buxton told The Citizen.

However, if the situation becomes serious enough, the state could close a bridge, "but that's never been done," he said. "The towns are sensitive. It's their liability and responsibility."

Cole said he is exploring various options for dealing with the situation, which will be back on the selectmen's agenda at their regular meeting Monday evening.

Massage

PER REQUEST—Sharon Lyon gives Telstar senior Kenny Marshall a massage in the school's library. As a result of their massage experience, said Lyon, a few students have also signed up for yoga or Reiki sessions (with other practitioners). Lyon also spends a day at the Crescent Park Elementary School, giving massages to staff members. (Photo: A. Aloisio)

"I talked to them about stress, and what they could do to relax. They had so many levels of stress — peer pressure, homework, money, clothing, getting arrested or going to jail, life in general," she said.

Lyon went home wondering if there was anything she could do to help kids on a longer-term basis.

"I thought, 'Why not go to my own school, Telstar?'" she said.

So Lyon wrote to school officials proposing to offer her skills. They decided to start in the library, with staff members. She put up a sign that says, "Take 10," — 10 minutes to relax.

After kids started seeing the teachers on Lyon's massage chair, "they started asking, 'Can I sit there?'" she said.

With a permission slip from their parents, they can.

Today, Lyon averages about 10 kids and a half dozen staff members every Monday, her day at the school.

For some, a massage has been an eye-opening experience.

"I didn't think I had any knots in my back," said student Danielle Henley.

"It's very relaxing," said senior Kenny Marshall.

Another student said she often feels "on edge," and the massage helped counter that.

Lyon said the opportunity for massage in a school setting helps balance out a long-term trend away from physical contact between adults and students in school.

She said she remembers as a child that school was a place to receive attention and even positive affection from teachers, but today, "that's now off limits."

"The pendulum for negative touching has swung so far," she said. "We all know what bad touching is. What we don't know about is good touching, at the person's request."

Briefly

Animal officer needed

BETHEL — After several weeks of running ads that no one answered, Bethel Town Manager Scott Cole said he is "looking at alternative strategies" for providing animal control in the town. The town has been without an ACO since Ozzie Hart resigned in mid summer. Cole said the options he is looking at include providing additional training for police officers (who are currently handling the duties); or having members of the town crew share the responsibilities. Part of the problem in attracting ACOs is the low pay and intermittent work, a situation that could be improved by having several towns share an ACO, Cole told selectmen last week. "In the days of Everett Chase [ACO before Hart], he actually had about 15 towns lined up and was making a living off that, of sorts," Cole said. "It actually was a good system."

THS NHS helps with Katrina relief

BETHEL — On September 16 the National Honor Society at Telstar Regional High School sponsored a dance to raise money for the victims of Hurricane Katrina. The society will be sending a little more than $700 to the American Red Cross in Auburn. Students are also hoping that this donation will be matched by a local matching gift program, which would bring the final contribution to $1,400. The students donated 100 percent of the profits to help the survivors. In addition, several honor society seniors were raffled off for "slow dances," students sold bottled water; and NHS kept donation jars throughout the school for several weeks. One Telstar student placed $55 worth of pennies, coins, dollar bills and five-dollar bills in one of the donation jars. Another student contributed $30. Historically, the proceeds from this annual dance have helped pay for books for those society students who are going on to college. This year, however, immediately after the hurricane hit New Orleans, the student members decided to send the entire dance proceeds to the American Red Cross. Members chose an admission fee of $4 and placed a contribution jar right next to the ticket box — they then asked/persuaded most attendees to consider placing an additional contribution in the jar. "I'm proud of the people I go to school with at Telstar. They're always willing to help out. Last year, we raised money for the victims of the tsunami. One of our honor society purposes is to serve the community," said senior Kyle Kuvaja, president of the Telstar chapter.

Special Town Meeting

GREENWOOD — A special Town Meeting will be held Tuesday, Oct. 18 to vote on amendments to the town's Subdivision and Land Use ordinances and on adopting a proposed new Site Plan Review Ordinance. Copies of the ordinances involved are available at the Town Office and will also be available at the Town Meeting. The meeting will be held in the selectmen's meeting room at the Town Office. It will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Smile Fund Fair Saturday

BETHEL — The World Service Committee of the West Parish Congregational Church will host the second annual Smile Fund Fair Saturday, Oct. 15 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The fund provides support for individuals in SAD44 who need restorative dental care not covered by Medicaid. Through community support and proceeds from the 2004 Smile Fund Fair, eight individuals have been able to pursue restorative work, in most cases, dentures. All names are confidential, with referrals made by an individual's health care provider or social worker. The fair is similar to an inside yard sale, with a coffee shop and bake sale. Items to sell (no clothes, please) may be dropped off at the church Friday. Cash donations are also welcome, and checks may be made out the fund and sent to the church at PO Box 23, Bethel, 04217.

From the Bethel Police Log:

Monday, Oct. 10

At 12:15 p.m. Sgt. S.R. White responded to a property damage accident at a business location. A driver ran into the side of a tractor trailer.

At 12:40 p.m. Sgt. S.R. White responded to a Walkers Mills Road location for a 911 hang-up call. A subject had misdialed.

At 3:57 p.m. Officer Phil Taylor responded to the Crescent Park Elementary School for a report of criminal mischief. Screens had been slashed and a garden trampled.

Sunday, Oct. 9

At 12:16 p.m. Officer Bill Britting observed a subject driving a pickup on Route 2 without plates. The vehicle was unregistered and Brandon B. Brown, 20, of Bethel was summoned for the offense.

At 3 p.m. Officer T.J. Reese responded to the Chandler Hill Road from a 911 hang-up call. On arrival he was informed a child had been playing with the phone.

At 6:20 p.m. Officer T.J. Reese received a description of a vehicle that had left a Rumford gas station without paying for gas. The officer stopped the vehicle on Route 2. The driver said it was a mistake, and she would return to pay for it. She was told to have the station verify to the officer the gas had been paid for, or he would write a summons. She complied.

Saturday, Oct. 8

At 5:32 a.m. Officer Buddy Richard responded to an accident at the intersection of Route 2 and the Parkway. A vehicle had struck a building. Two subjects were taken to the hospital by Bethel Rescue.

Friday, Oct. 7

At 12:10 p.m. Chief Alan Carr took a report of possible fraud. The complainant said a subject had sent him a check for rental property and the check was made out for more than the correct amount. The subject asked the complainant to cash the check and mail the balance to him. The check proved to be counterfeit.

At 5:45 p.m. Officer Travis Fillmore received a report of a vehicle passing cars at a high rate of speed and nearly causing an accident. The officer made contact with a vehicle matching the description and warned the driver for speed.

Thursday, Oct. 6

At 4:55 a.m. Officer Travis Fillmore responded to assist the Fire Department with a fire at a Route 2 business in West Bethel.

At 3:50 p.m. on the Songo Pond Road Sgt. S.R. White arrested Michael A. Lee, 22, of Bridgton on a criminal arrest warrant and for operating after suspension.

At 10:20 p.m. Sgt. S.R. White and Officer Buddy Richard arrested Amber Tuck, 27, and Rodney Levesque, 25, for disorderly conduct at a Mason Street residence.

This report highlights points of interest from the Bethel Police Department log. It lists all cases of adults being arrested or issued a criminal summons in the 10 days prior to the newspaper's publication, but does not include all reports of other police activity. To reach the Bethel Police Department, call 911 in emergency situations, 824-3437 in non-emergencies.

about serving as the holder of the easement land.

Setting aside at least 50 percent of the land will streamline the developer's approval process with the Maine Department of Environmental Protection, DuBois said.

He said the smallest lots would be approximately four acres, with most of them ranging between seven and 10.

"The larger lots would be on the outside areas," he said.

He estimated the total amount of land to be divided into lots would be approximately 700 acres.

Asked by planners about the expected "owner profile" of potential buyers, DuBois said he believed they would be primarily people interested in the views, but there would likely be some skiers, also.

"You can see all of Sunday River into the Notch," he said. "It's spectacular."

The road through the development would be about 2.5 miles long, said DuBois. There are already well-built logging roads through the property, he said, and the development road would utilize them. He said there would not be much tree cutting needed.

"What trees?" noted planner Norm Davis, who is also an abutter to the property. "It's clearcut now."

"It's been cut pretty aggressively," acknowledged DuBois.

MaineVest will present a formal application at a future planning meeting.

Music

tranquil space to recharge from the caregiving," said Conni. "I found that space with this music."

The first CD of the trilogy, "Beneath the Waves," quickly rose to fame.

It was well reviewed in music trade and New Age publications, and it received considerable airtime on commercial radio stations, college stations, as well as NPR.

The two CDs that followed received similarly positive reactions.

One would think that this would lead to strong sales and a tidy profit margin. Unfortunately, the music industry is not that simple.

Enthusiastic reviews and lots of airtime are a good start, but there also needs to be a distribution mechanism available.

Major recording labels controlled distribution to stores, and that, said Conni, "was something we continually struggled with."

New Age in a new world
But that was the music world's old business model, a way of getting merchandise to market that began to change dramatically at the turn of the new century.

In 1999, an 18-year-old college dropout named Shawn Fanning created Napster, a computer program that allowed people to download music over the Internet — for free.

Napster was soon challenged in court as a copyright infringement, but the good news out of the whole affair was that the corporate world realized millions of listeners were eager to download music to their computers.

With dollar signs in their eyes, entrepreneurs jumped on this new bandwagon and began setting up Web sites dedicated to downloading legal music.

Among these are such well-known sites as eMusic.com and iTunes.com.

Subscribers either pay a monthly fee to the Web site and are then able to download a specific number of songs each month, or they may opt to pay a modest fee per song.

Recording artists like Conni earn a fixed payment each time one of their songs or albums is downloaded.

About two years ago Conni signed a contract making her recordings available on 140 Web sites worldwide.

Now, with every download of her work, from wherever in the world, Conni, in Bethel, earns a fee.

And it's all without the need for a major corporate label.

Long time coming
Unlike Web commerce, Conni's growing recognition is hardly an overnight phenomenon — rather it is the outcome of decades of hard work.

Conni began playing the piano when she was 6 years old, added the flute when she was 12 and then stayed with that instrument.

In fact, on her three CDs she plays 16 different flutes.

The music is shaped by medieval and Renaissance influences; from her years studying music at Morley College in London, and by art rock and punk, from her stint in the Boston music scene of the late 1970s.

While she was in Boston, Conni met Ted St. Pierre, a graduate of Gould Academy and the Berklee School of Music.

They fell in love, married and in 1980 moved to Bethel and opened The Outlook Studio.

Friends predicted the venture would last about a year — that was a quarter century ago.

Ted is The Outlook's studio engineer and Conni, when she's not making her own music, is the business manager.

She releases a new CD about every two years. Her latest "Flower Spirits," will be available later this fall.

You will soon be able hear — and download — individual songs from "Flower Spirits" on the Web.

And, of course, you will be able to order it and online, where Conni's earlier CDs are also available.

They are also available at several locations in Bethel and in music stores around Maine.

rage next to the school and construction vehicles at the Merrifield Hill road work site, Hanson said.

More than $4,000 in damage was done at the garage alone, Hanson said. In addition to the broken windows, a recreational vehicle inside incurred approximately $2,000 in damages and a 1991 Cadillac approximately $3,000.

"They picked some really good windows to break," said Hanson.

At the construction site, two excavators and a bulldozer also had broken windows.

Other damage elsewhere included lawn ornaments, mailboxes and newspaper delivery posts, as well as highway signs and vehicles that were spray painted.

Hanson said he received information from truckers who had observed people dressed in black at the construction site during the night of Oct. 5.

That information helped place the incidents in time, he said.

EARLY MORNING ACCIDENT

Two people were injured Saturday morning when this SUV struck the corner of the Norway Savings Bank building in Bethel. Mary Hoover, 39, of Bethel was driving east on Route 2 at about 5:30 a.m. when she went off the road on a slight curve after the overpass. The 1999 Jeep Cherokee went down over the embankment and hit the building. Hoover and her passenger, James Eaton, 54, of Hanover were taken by Bethel Rescue to Stephens Memorial Hospital. They were released Tuesday. The SUV struck the bank in the office area, causing some damage. Here, the vehicle is pulled on to a wrecker. Police believe Hoover may have fallen asleep before going off the curve.

Bethel

by Mary Keniston
Carolyn Gould and daughter, Susan Mallory, with children, Samantha and Jack, went to Cranston, R.I., for the weekend to attend her 50th class reunion. They visited with Brent Batchelder and enjoyed his beautiful new home in Providence. They had dinner with a niece and nephew, and attended church in Providence at the Cathedral of St. John where Carolyn and her late husband, Malcolm, were married.

Jean Kailey has returned to her home on Amelia Island, Fla.

Ida Lee Bryant, formerly of Bethel and Herman, now of Bangor, has moved from her home on 991 Odlin Road to J.L.H. for Assisted Living, 87 Ohio Street, Bangor, 04401.

Recent visitors at the Keniston home on Vernon Street were Virginia Moshier of Randolph, N.H.; Bonnie Van Durme, granddaughter, Makenna, and Laurel Foster from Norway; Raymond Arsenault from South Paris; Ruth Feeney from Woodstock; and Donald Rice from Waterford.

Justin and Sue Rice, with children, Alyssa and William Douglas, from Guilford, Conn., were at The Chalet at Sunday River, for the weekend and called on grandparents, Mary and Lefty Keniston.

Carl Meaux and Llonia returned to their home in Duluth, Ga. on Monday.

Mayville News Sept. 26 to Oct. 9 — by Don Bennett:
Foliage season tour buses have been stopping regularly at the "Brew Pub" on Route 2. Over the last year the pub has expanded their indoor seating and has added a very nice outside deck to the pub. Some noontimes the pub has had two buses in the parking lot while passengers were inside having lunch.

The Thursday, Sept. 29, afternoon heavy showers left an inch and three-quarters of rain in Mayville. As of Sunday noon, Oct. 9, we had received nearly five inches of additional rain from the storm that started Friday, Oct. 8. Our cornfield now has three small ponds and the river is nearing the top of its bank here as of Sunday.

On Saturday, Oct. 8, the world of politics waded ashore into Mayville to celebrate the opening of their million-dollar bridge.

For those readers who may be looking for winter omens: the furry caterpillar has bands of equal width and the oak trees are dropping an above-average load of acorns.

The past two weeks have seen plenty of potato and corn activity. Sunday River Farm trucks were on the road for Rumford Point both weeks until the rain started on Friday. This year the potato truck fleet has at least two new additions: new truck bodies have roll-up canvases to cover their load.

Middle Intervale Farm cut its Mayville field corn during the first two days of October. Peter Haines ran the corn harvester. John Carter told me that he raised 140 acres of field corn this year; chopped up as silage, it will go into their farm's huge trench silo near the Middle Intervale Meetinghouse. Carter's dairy herd is producing around 4,000 pounds of milk a day. (A Bethel reporter for the Oxford Democrat edition of Sept. 24, 1889, quoted St. John Hastings of Bethel as saying that he considered his silo his most profitable investment on his farm. Silos were just coming into use in this part of Maine at that time. The farm in this 1889 report included land surrounding the mouth of Sunday River. The large farmhouse and barns burned about 50 years ago.) John Carter used some of the fields that made up the former Hastings' farm this summer for growing field corn and hay.

Mary Valentine told me that Leslie Robertson in Newry had harvested the Valentine farm hay fields this year; these are intervale fields located in the general vicinity of the Bethel Airport. The Robertson farm raises beef cattle and the farm homestead is located next to the Newry Town Office. It has extensive acreage in the Bear River area.

Route 2 in Mayville could be renamed the "Chipping Highway." At mid-day wood chip hauling trucks pass through Mayville at the rate of nearly one truck every six minutes, with returning empty trucks, that amounts to 20 trucks an hour during the peak hauling period of week days. Hauling starts before seven o'clock in the morning and is still going on after six o'clock in the evening. No trucks on Sundays; pulp trucks are seldom seen these days. By my calculations, at least 350,000 to 400,000 cubic feet of chips, or even more, go eastward during an average workday. With diesel fuel at nearly $3 a gallon, what will happen to paper prices?

We are in the process of posting our property. Saturday afternoon a man came running into the field behind our house firing a shotgun while he was still on the run. It looked like he was after the flock of turkeys that visit us two or three times a day. From what we could see he shot two birds that he picked up on his way back to the field behind the River View.

P.S. Mary Valentine suggested adding historical commentary to some of the current news from Mayville, since this part of Bethel has always been a farming area, the Valentine farm included.

Oxford Hills Bridge Club met Friday at the Fare Share Commons where a 4-1/2 table Howell movement was enjoyed. Finishing first in flight A were Beverly Pelletier and Paul Barber with Linda Leotakos and Audrey Burns second, who also finished first in flight B. Third in flight A were Luke Merry and Richard Ballan. Finishing second in flight B were Eleanor Griffin and Jim Dickens.

West Bethel

by Lorrie Hoeh
As I write this on Monday morning, we have had 4.7 inches of rain since Friday night. The brook is high, but not dangerously so. Lots of leaves have fallen in the downpours, and there's more to come. The hillsides are showing color, but very muted compared to other years. This morning I noticed that the bracken fern on the roadside ranges from a rusty color to deep mahogany.

Last Friday afternoon, we had eight turkeys parading through the yard, sampling the seeds under the bird feeders, and then ambling off toward the brook. It looked like a hen and her nearly grown-up babies, with no tom in sight.

The Fryeburg Fair is over, having ended with a splash rather than a bang. The final two days were pretty soggy. My last day there was Saturday, and while the crowds were thinner than usual, we saw, if anything, more people in the Farm Museum than usual. Folks do the inside exhibits on rainy days in an attempt to stay dry and avoid the puddles.

Speaking of the fair, I must apologize for sins of omission in last week's mention of the Grange exhibits. Pauline Applein reminded me that Rupert and Ina Grover provided most of the fruits, both canned and fresh; and many vegetables, both canned and fresh, were from the gardens of Jeff and Serena Williams, Rupert and Ina Grover, and Rupert Jr., Suzanne, and Jessica Grover. She also noted that Karen Paul provided an extensive collection of herbs, as well as fresh eggs.

Pauline made it clear that while she and John set up the agricultural display, they couldn't have done it without the contributions and help of many people. In her words, "Both of our displays, domestic and agricultural, are truly a group effort. We'd like to acknowledge the work done by all our members."

On Monday, the 10th, several of those same Grange members were back at Fryeburg to take down the displays and retrieve all their goodies. Did you know that in order for the baked goods to look fresh for eight days, they were sprayed with hair spray? I guess those particular "goodies" will go right to the compost heap.

Jane Hosterman reports that she attended dinner Saturday night at the Alder River Grange and had a fine meal and enjoyable time.

In talking with Jen at the West Bethel Country Store, I learned that she and Fred have reinstated the "Big Bucks Club." This is for all the deer hunters out there. For $5 you can join, and whoever nails the biggest buck takes the pot. Sounds like motivation to me.

Our heartfelt sympathy goes to Linda Westleigh and her family. Linda's mother, Ruth Curtis, died peacefully last Thursday night at the age of 83, of complications from diabetes and an infection. She had been a resident of Ledgewood.

The Pivin family had a celebration Sunday night for daughter Laura's 20th birthday. All the family was there to add to the festivities and help eat the cake. Happy birthday, Laura, and many happy returns of the day.

My husband, Mike, spent last week on the Margaree River in Nova Scotia, fishing for Atlantic salmon. He and Jerry Vincent of Chestnut Knoll have been returning to this same spot for about ten years. Alas, this year was not as productive as other years. Jerry managed to land one grilse, but in general the old saw applied: "You shoulda been here last week."

Maybe by the time this appears in print, the sun will have come out again. One can only hope. See you next week. 836-3011; dhoe@megalink.net

The Cambridge River is roaring and we don't usually see this in the fall. Stoney Brook spilled over its banks with a thunderous torrent. People stayed close to home except for the "Leaf Peepers" and bird hunters. L.L. Cote's parking lot was filled with those seeking entertainment on a very rainy Columbus Day weekend.

Dianne and Ginny Williamson witnessed a strange event on the lawn by their home. Ginny has a small wooden loon sign on her lawn; however, it suffered destruction on Saturday.

The little moose, who is growing rapidly, made an appearance and began his foray. It circled the sign and proceeded to kick it to splinters. He will grow up to be an "Alpha" moose and may attack your car in the future.

A night of "Cards and Pool" were enjoyed at the Nelson's home Friday evening. Those present were Ken Fysh, Evelyn and Jim Kenney, Liz Stanczyk, Joy Yarnell and Sue and Larry Nelson. Richard and Ellie LeComte stayed home to "bellyache" about the miserable weather. We missed a night of fun.

Most of the residents visited the Fryeburg Fair last week and said it was better than ever. Bill and Anita Harris make it an annual event and travel to Maine from LeRoy, N.Y. The rain on Saturday did not deter most folks. Gene Wixom won two dollars on the races, which is more than he usually wins. He was elated.

The Ladies Aid met for conversation and crafts. Only three people attended; they were Amber, Simone and Ellie. Next Saturday at the Ladies Aid Building there will be a Christmas Craft and Bake Sale from 9 a.m. till 3 p.m.

A black-backed three-toed woodpecker, who is seldom seen, visited an old dead birch tree in the yard. It stayed about twenty minutes pecking, and then returned to the deep woods where he must live.

The first Canada jay spent Sunday afternoon attacking the suet feeder. It always arrives on a blustery, rainy day. There are usually three in the group. It probably returned to its habitat to invite his relatives to dinner. They always arrive about a week after the hummingbirds fly south.

The "Birds of the Week" are the black-backed woodpecker and our tame old friends, the Canada jays. These are two interesting birds. Consult your bird book.

The house seems really quiet since all of our company left last week. It was really great to see everyone, but now it is back to tending to all the other projects that need to be done. The rain has been helpful with that this weekend. There is not much incentive to do a lot when it has been raining every day over the long holiday weekend.

The leaves have finally decided to turn color. Even though the rain makes it hard to get

The Way I See It

by Sharon Bouchard

Sharon Bouchard's column is published by special arrangement with the Advertising Department

I know that I've complained about telemarketers before and how annoying they can be and now I feel compelled to complain a little more.

I think everyone has gotten the calls that start off with "Congratulations, you have won such and such." Just as your heart rate starts to increase and you think your luck is changing for the better, you are told that to claim your great prize you have to go to a resort and spend the day listening to a "Time-share" presentation.

If you are not willing to take the time out of your busy life and listen to the hype of how great it would be to own one or two weeks in a condo at this great resort, then you haven't won anything.

My daughter and her husband got suckered into one of these presentations a few years ago. They were told it would be only about an hour or so and would include a nice dinner. They would also receive a gift certificate to a very nice restaurant.

The presentation took most of the day; the meal was cheese and crackers. They did get the gift certificate, which was good for $25.00 off at a restaurant where even the appetizers were over $25.00. And, they are still receiving telephone calls from this resort trying to get them to buy two weeks time-share.

Most of us have gotten calls from various mortgage lenders letting us know that we are pre-approved to refinance our homes at a very low interest rate. I know some people who have gotten these calls and they don't even own a home to refinance.

Besides, how can anyone be pre-approved for something as significant as a home mortgage? It's for darn sure that when you go through a legitimate bank, they never tell you that you're pre-approved. The real banks do things like credit checks, title searches, appraisals and a whole bunch of other stuff.

At least when the mortgage lenders call they ask for Mr. or Mrs. Whomever. Now there is a whole new wave of telemarketers who leave messages like, "Hi, this is Chuck and I've been trying to catch up with you guys, so I'll just leave my telephone number."

I know I could sign up for the National "Do Not Call" list, but that would take away all my fun.

Well, I don't know any Chuck so I certainly don't return the calls. I have even answered the phone before to hear the same Chuck telling me he's been trying to catch up with us guys and get this...it's a recording. If Chuck is so intent on catching up with us guys he should call in person. Not that I would listen to his spiel, but at least he wouldn't be able to leave recorded messages saying he's trying to catch up with us because he would have caught up with us and I would be able to hang up on a real person.

Another new tactic is someone calling and saying that we talked a while ago or that they are getting back to me with the information I wanted. This is a pretty clever ruse because you have to find out what their pitch is before you realize that you have never talked to or requested any information from this smuck.

Sometimes the caller has a very strong Indian accent, but says their name is Tabatha or Brent and the company they represent is a very American company.

I saw a segment on 60 Minutes once about how many American companies are out sourcing telemarketing jobs to India, but they want the employees to sound as American as possible, thus the names.

One day I got a call from "Dustin" who was trying to sell me a magazine subscription. I politely declined the offer and then asked how the weather was in Bombay. Poor Dustin was taken a bit off guard, but did finally admit that it was quite hot in Bombay.

I know I could sign up for the National "Do Not Call" list, but that would take away all my fun. If the caller is not rude or pushy I am always polite when I say no. After all, I'm in sales too and I know that the callers are just doing a job.

However, if the caller is rude or pushy then I have some fun. There have been some obnoxious callers that angered me so much that I agreed to purchase their product or service and proceeded to give my address as 123 Main Street, Mars. This usually ends the conversation.

With one especially slick caller who said I won a new car if I purchased over $600 in health and beauty aids, I informed him I was taping his call and that I worked for the Attorney General's Office on Consumer Affairs. Apparently he forgot all about my new car and the health and beauty aids because he wished me a nice day and hung up.

It has become my own personal challenge to get some of these people to hang up on me. I actually have a pretty good success rate.

If you're a telemarketer and you can be polite, respectful and not call during the supper hour, you are welcome to call me. But, the way I see it, if you are trying to catch up with me or just getting back to me with unrequested information, don't call me, I'll try to catch up with you.

out and take pictures, the di-hard "Leaf Peepers" are still hopeful. We noticed that the rain sometimes brings out the colors very nicely against the dark wet bark of the trees.

Hugh's brother, Bill Lord, and his wife, Barbara, who were visiting us from Phoenix, Ariz., got a chance to visit with Hi and Mary Lou Berry in Newry before they headed over to New Hampshire to visit with other relatives. Bill had seen Mary Lou at the Gould Reunion, but there wasn't much chance to sit down and visit with all the activities going on.

I was talking on the phone with my brother, Steve McLain, the other day and Oxford County Dispatch toned out for Gilead Fire Department. The GFD had to respond to an accident on Route 2 to do traffic control. Hopefully, the driver of the car, Lesa Brown, and her children are doing all right.

The next event for the GHS is the Cemetery Tour on Oct. 29, and everyone will meet at the Town Hall at 1 p.m. We will try to visit as many of the cemeteries as possible. There are two on Route 2 and two on the North Road. There are also a couple of private cemeteries to point out.

East Stoneham

by Eleanor Nelson
Hi readers. We got more good news this week. Eloise Vail told me that Kevin and Valerie Barker had twin babies born at Stephens Memorial Hospital on Monday, Oct. 3. They are a son, Brady, and a daughter, Montana. They join a sister, Chelsey. Congratulations to you all. I heard that they are really cute and all are doing well. Grandparents are Neal and Martha Littlefield and Dee and Cheryl Barker. I hope I got that right. Eloise Vail is the great-grandmother.

I forgot to write about the public supper that the Stoneham Rescue and the Waterford-Stoneham Lions Club put on at the Rescue Barn a few weeks ago, which was to benefit the Hurricane Katrina Relief. It was a good spaghetti and meatballs supper and they had a good turnout of people to it, which was good.

That same night Albert had bought lobsters and we had them at Albert Nelson, Jr.'s house. There were seven of us there and Albert, Sr. celebrated his birthday again with cake and ice cream and gifts, etc. I think his birthday is lasting longer than mine did, as this weekend he is going to get subs from Santoro's in Saugus, Mass. Nobody makes them as good as Bob Santoro and son and it is always a good treat.

While on the subject of food, the North Waterford Church's annual Harvest Supper will be Saturday, Oct. 15, at the Vestry from 5 to 6:30 p.m.

The Waterford Friendly Senior Citizens will go on a Foliage Trip to Teena's restaurant in Rumford on Thursday, Oct. 13, meeting at the North Waterford Church at 10 a.m. and leaving about 10:30 a.m. I believe we will be carpooling, so do not be late. It is always a nice outing.

On Oct. 20 the Waterford-Stoneham Lions Club plans to meet at Bear Mtn. Inn for a potluck supper, Italian night at 6 p.m.

Oh yes, we have a new postmaster here in the Stoneham post office, who seems real nice. His name is Rusty Merrill. Stop in and say hi to him.

Did you know that Benjamin Franklin, Boston native and first postmaster general has appeared on 29 postage stamp series and pre-stamped cards and letters since 1847? Also, did you know that the L.L. in L.L. Bean stands for Leon Leon-wood? I bet you did not. Have a good week and you make it happen and I will write about it.

Andover

The Andover Recreation Committee is sponsoring two First Aid/

Adult CPR training courses to be held at the Andover Town Hall, on Saturday, Oct. 22, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. or Sunday, Oct. 23, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Please bring a blanket. The cost is $20 for residents and $35 for non-residents. Please contact Hope Peterson at 392-1088 or Pam Pace at 392-2390 before Oct. 14.

There will also be free screenings for cholesterol and blood pressure on Oct. 24, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. This will also be held at the Town Hall. It will take 30 minutes; you

DBA: Amy's Bakeshop

Amy's Bakeshop, on the corner of Route 26 and East Bethel Road in Locke Mills, offers a variety of breakfast rolls, muffins, and pastries, as well as Maine-roasted Carrabassett Coffee. Owner Amy Chapman specializes in homemade bread and pies, and special orders are welcome. Hot soups and stews, served with fresh bread, are available beginning at 11 a.m. The bakery also carries a selection of unique handmade gifts and handpainted furniture and accessory items. Amy's Bakeshop is open Thursday and Friday from 6 a.m. to 4 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. (Closed Monday through Wednesday.) For more information or to place an order, call 875-5511.

will have a take-home report, which can also be sent to your doctor. See/call Pam Pace for information.

On Friday, Oct. 28, there will be a Halloween musical at the Andover Elementary School.

Don't forget the Haunted Walk in the woods behind Andover Automotive on Saturday evening, Oct. 29, from 6 p.m. until the last person is haunted. Donation will be $1. Parking will be across the street, near the town garage and tennis courts.

The Snow Valley Snow Goers will be hosting a Landowners Harvest Supper on Oct. 15, from 4:30 until 6:30 p.m. It will be held at the C.E.B.; the public is welcome to attend.

The bear count through Oct. 1 at Mills Market is nine. Opening morning of the moose hunt saw seven moose tagged through until 2 p.m.

Have a nice weekend.

Hanover

by Clem Worcester
The Howard Pond Dam master, Frank Morrison, had announced plans to open the gate and begin draining the pond for the winter on Oct. 16. The heavy rains that deluged the area last weekend changed his plans. Because the pond became overfull the dam's gate was opened a week early.

There have been no reports of road washouts or flooding due to the heavy rains that seemed to go on forever.

A world traveler has emerged among our citizens. Gail Parent recently returned home from a trip to Newfoundland. Earlier she had traveled to China.

The Hanover Planning Board met Oct. 5. The members present approved a permit to alter a pump house into a playhouse along the shore of Howard Pond after the owner agreed to comply with appropriate setback rulings. The board also studied instances where property owners had cut more than the allowed foliage within the shoreland zone area. They also are investigating an excavation project without a permit in the shoreland zone, which appeared to create a traffic hazard. The Planning Board's next meeting will be Nov. 9, at 7 p.m. at the Town Office.

The logging job north of Hanover Village has ended after several months of activity. The road to that property, formerly owned by Meadowcroft, has been closed to prevent wet-weather damage.

The office of the Hanover tax collector reports that ten properties in Hanover have unpaid 2004 taxes that were due June 30, 2005. Thirty-day notices have been issued and will be followed by tax liens.

A computer, supplied to the state of Maine to maintain the Help America Vote Act, has arrived at the Hanover Town Office and is being set up and programmed.

Eventually there will be statewide voter registration lists.

Mason

I recently learned that Rebecca Hanscom Cole, daughter of Mason's own David Hanscom, was appointed to the "Who's Who Among Executive and Professional Women in Education" this year. Becky is an elementary school teacher in the Windom school system. Congratulations to Becky and her proud father.

On Thursday last week, motivated by the summer-like weather and the rapidly changing leaf colors, Mona and I decided to take a canoe ride down the Androscoggin. We left the car at Davis Park in Bethel and drove to Gilead in the truck where we launched the canoe. Of course, Snuffy accompanied us and proved to be a good traveler, as he lay quietly in the middle of the canoe for almost the whole trip, only occasionally shifting position and our center of gravity. The trip was just about perfect, with a beautiful blue sky, brown water, multi-colored leaves floating both atop and submerged in the water, plenty of ducks and other birds, and mostly smoothly flowing water carrying us quietly down stream.

About an hour down stream, we noted a dark lump in mid river ahead. Initially, we figured it was just a rock and paid little attention. Then, as we were passing the "rock" in shallow water, we took a closer look. "Look, it looks like a dead animal," Mona observed. "You're right!" I answered, looking more closely. "It's a dead moose!" we both exclaimed. "Get closer and take a picture," Mona said.

Too late, we tried to paddle over, but I was afraid we might strike bottom with the canoe cross-wise in the current and flip; we didn't get the close-up we wanted.

About three hours into the trip and with Davis Park in sight, Mona groaned, "Oh, S---" "Expletive deleted. "What's the matter?" I asked. "I left the car keys in the truck!" she replied. "You walk up to the Big Apple and call Jane, and I'll wait at the park with Snuffy and the canoe."

Thursday evening, we returned home at about 10 p.m., after watching the Sox game at "The Farm" with Rupert and Ina. I turned Snuffy loose and walked down the driveway with him as he ran around and "did his thing" in the darkness. Me too. Then Snuffy began barking, just a few barks, in the direction of the garden. Thinking he might be harassing a moose or bear and not wanting to encounter either of them without a light, I hustled back to the house. I called Mona and got the car so we could see what Snuffy was barking at. Before we got within sight of the garden, we knew what he was after. Skunk! I maneuvered the car and soon spied Snuffy, now shaking the unlucky skunk. With the skunk now dead, Snuffy rolled in the grass, apparently trying to rid himself of skunk perfume. As I write this, we plan to give him a bath in some hunter's "de-scent" to see if we can make him presentable again.

Ronald Dyke passed away last week. Sympathy is extended to his family.

Debbie Eldredge of Unity visited Millie Jackson from Sept. 30 to Oct. 3.

Dawson and Judy Smith of Surrey visited Arlene Harrington Oct. 7 and 8.

Alder River Grange will have a meeting Oct. 14 at the hall with a 6:30 p.m. potluck supper and the meeting at 7:30 p.m.

There are two more suppers on the supper schedule for this year: Oct. 22, the beef stew supper, and the turkey supper on Nov. 12. The turkey supper is free to any veteran. Adults are $6 and under 13 are $3. All suppers start at 5 p.m.

Groton, Mass., was celebrating their 350th anniversary, not 150th when Jack and Lucy Nordahl visited.

I hope everyone has a good week. God bless the troops.

Locke Mills

Lorene Mills held a 21st birthday bash for her son, Preston Cobb, at her home on Thursday, Oct. 6. She served pizza, ice cream and sodas; lemon squares and apple crisp, made by her daughter Mandy Konkright; and birthday cake and lemon meringue pie; made by her daughter, Calla Tyler. Those present besides Lorene, Preston, Mandy, and Calla were Laura Hutchins, Matt Lorrain, Ricky Joe McLean, Ralph Mills, and Lorraine Larson. Naomi Young and Mat Konkright were working so were unable to be present. Preston received some nice gifts.

Ricky McLean was awarded Student of the Week last week at the Woodstock School.

Debbie and Owen Brown enjoyed a four-day vacation and spent most of it visiting his aunt, Arlene Brown, at her home in Salem, N.H., and attending a hair show in Manchester, N.H. They also stopped in to see former pastors of Praise Assembly, Jim and Jody Michaels, Lancaster, N.H., who told them they were looking forward to being grandparents soon, and had supper with Rob and Denise Rainville, in Rutland, Vt.

Missy Wakefield would like to remind everyone of the upcoming Craft Fair at the Woodstock School on Saturday, Oct. 29. For more information call Missy at 665-2211.

What a lovely stretch of weather we have been having, but, by the time you read this, the weatherman has promised some changes. Well, we need the promised rain to help bring our water tables up for the winter. It is when they promise rain and we do not get it that I get upset a bit. It is too bad that one place, such as down in the Gulf district, gets so much water they cannot handle it and we can barely get enough to go us through the winter.

My cat, Garbo, has not been a happy camper lately, as somehow she got injured and she cannot move her tail properly and cannot jump, so she is confined to the house. It is not safe for her to be outside without her usual defenses, such as jumping and climbing. At first, she did not mind as she was in a lot of pain and did not want to do anything but hide up and sleep, but now she is feeling better and it is a different story. She will go to each one of us who happens to be available, she thinks, to open doors, and talks very plainly, if you have an inkling of cat talk, voicing her displeasure at being singled out as the one cat not allowed outdoors. It has not helped her so far but she keeps hoping. The first thing I noticed was that she was no longer sleeping with me curled up in the crook of my arm as she usually did. I thought probably she was warmer in the living room, but when she began hiding up I knew something was wrong, and when she tried to jump up in a chair and could not, I made an appointment with the vet, who noticed she could not move her tail. A couple X-rays and many blood tests later ruled out everything but nerve damage. Her blood work was as good as most 6- to 8-year-olds, which was a relief, and her X-rays showed nothing alarming either, so hopefully everything will eventually straighten out by itself. She was able to get up on the couch today so I think that is a good sign.

I had hardly written that Garbo was feeling better but still was not allowed out than I got up to let another cat in and she came out of nowhere and slipped past me. She came in a bit later and proudly dropped a very upset little frog at my feet. I managed to steer it out the door, holding Garbo all the while, and what happened to it from there I have no idea and it is probably just as well. I am not sure that Garbo caught it originally, as she is not usually that fond of getting her feet wet to get them. Jack is my frog catcher. Water does not bother him in the slightest, either on his feet or on his fur. I am sure that if he were not so heavy he would probably go swimming. Anyhow, I suspect that Garbo took it away from him and brought it in. I have a lot of little toads around here but the cats do not seem to bother them, perhaps they do not taste as well.

Anyhow, I am not sure but what her excursion set her back a bit as she is sleeping a lot today, as is Buddy who has caught a virus. He is such a miserable little cat when he gets one as his squashed-in nose gets more stuffed up than the regular noses do. He has medicine to take but he does not take medicine well, and I am lucky to get half a dose in him and that is at risk of life and limb.

West Paris

by Joyce Lamb

Last week was a beautiful summer week with the temperature in the 60- and 70-degree range every day. There were sunny days and warm evenings.

On Oct. 16 at 9 a.m. at the West Paris Universalist Church, Joseph Perham will lead the service. The topic will be "The Dignity of Man." Jim Burke is the organist. A coffee hour follows. All are welcome.

This past week was probably the best week ever for Fryeburg Fair. I spent two days and one night with my sisters-in-law, Jeanne Whittemore of Norway and Elaine Blossom at the fair. Jeanne has a large RV that she parks in the camping area. She has reserved this area for 20 years and spends the whole week there. There were over 3,000 campers there for the week.

Many halls were full of every kind of exhibits. Crafts were plentiful and I did some Christmas shopping. Wendy Newmeyer of West Paris had a booth selling her fir products. There was jewelry of all kinds, much handmade and some with tiny flowers. A mother pig with eight babies attracted the children. Llamas, cows, sheep, and goats as well as work and racing horses were plentiful. Food of all kinds was everywhere. Harmon's Fried Clams still had a booth as they have for years. And I enjoyed a pint as usual. The evening programs attracted thousands each evening. Usually we dress for winter to attend these but this year we attended in shirtsleeves.

The afternoon horse racing was exciting but none were paying much, discouraging the betting.

Beverly and Vince spent the week there, for Beverly is busy in her office helping things to run smoothly.

Jim and Chris Lamb had a booth selling their goods for mobile homes. We all had plenty of exercise as the large area was full and we wanted to see it all.

Buffy's beautiful coat is nearly full and he is enjoying sitting out in the rain.

The Historical Society Museum is nicely in order for another year. Curator Larry Billings has worked hard to insure that. Larry routinely catalogs and displays the exhibits. The museum has many quilts hung on the rafters. Quilts are very valuable so they are fortunate to have them all donated by local residents. They also have china and glass. They also have items as large as antique furniture to small items like jewelry and postcards. They even have church furniture from the South Woodstock Church. The late Olive Davis and Pete Andrews were largely responsible for that. They do not neglect any aspect of community life. Curator Larry gave a rare piece of china. The Historical Society serves the areas well. They do the best they can for a small society. You can help by joining.

We have lost a brown female tiger cat that is about 10 years old. We have hunted high and low and have no sign of her. She never leaves our property and only goes outside for short times. We live at the corner of Curtis Hill Road. Any information would be greatly appreciated. She answers to Daisy. We miss her very much and would love to know where she is or what happened to her. My phone number is 674-2102. Thanks.

We had beautiful fall days, sunny and warm. Then we had the rains. We are lucky not to have those terrible hurricanes to deal with. When we have a rainstorm it is just that, a rainstorm, although this one did get out of control in some places.

October is the month when harvest festivals and the last fair has occurred. We didn't make it to the Fryeburg Fair, perhaps next year. At least they had good weather for all but the last three days.

Please note: The Community Supper scheduled for Oct. 20 at the Wilkins House has been cancelled. The next potluck supper will be Thursday, Nov. 17; bring a pot to share. It begins at 6 p.m.

On Oct 23, the Halloween

Horse Show Family Fun Day will be held at the Waterford Fairgrounds. Cost is $3 per class and $2 for 4H Members.

We have managed to plant many new flowers and fruit plants. We planted pears, grapes, roses, and apples. We hope to have a very pretty yard next spring with all the blossoms.

Happy New Year to all my Jewish friends. Rosh Hashanah was last week and Yom Kippor is this week. They are New Year and the Day of Atonement when we atone for all our sins.

Sorry my column wasn't available last week. By some computer glitch, last January's column was sent instead of a current one. Go figure.

The Oxford County United Parish churches of Stoneham and North Waterford will hold services on Oct. 16, 23, and 30 at the Stoneham Congregational Church on Main Street (Route 5). After that, services will return to North Waterford for the winter. There is also a public supper on Oct. 15 from 5 to 6 p.m. at the North Waterford Church vestry. Menu is corned beef and cabbage. Cost is $7 for adults and $3.50 for children under 12.

Next Tuesday, the 18th of October, the Transfer Station Committee will meet at the Waterford Town Office. The meeting begins at 6:30 p.m. The committee meets monthly.

On Oct. 22, there will be a fall Yard and Bake Sale at the Waterford Grange - opposite Melby's Store. There will be pumpkin cookies, bread, donuts and pies. Cornstalks, gourds and pumpkins will be on sale, also. Proceeds are for renovations to the grange hall.

Tonight, Oct. 13, the Waterford Historical Society will be meeting at the Municipal Center on Valley Road. Speaker will be Sawin Millett. There will be a short business meeting at the beginning and a potluck dessert will follow the presentation. The meeting begins at 7 p.m.

Hope this week's column will make it into print. Have a great week.

From the Bethel Recreation Committee

We are still looking for fourth and fifth-grade students to join our basketball teams. This program will give students play time on a team in live game situations, giving the students game experience and hopefully will make the move into middle school basketball easier. Interested? Please call Jim Hannigan at 824-3220 to sign up. Also, for anyone interested, we still have a few spots open for coaches and referees.

Our youth soccer program on Saturday mornings at Telstar Regional High School will continue to run until Oct. 29. Anyone from grades K-5 is welcome to join us. The coaches in this program, as well as the coaches with the travel soccer team, do an outstanding job, and we are lucky to have these people. We thank them for what they do.

From the Bethel Lions Club

The Bethel Lions will be at the Bethel Foodliner on Oct. 21 to celebrate White Cane Safety Day.

White Cane Safety Day is celebrated in the United States on Oct. 15. On this day, Lions clubs publicize the needs of the blind and visually impaired. There will be informational handouts on White Cane Day, small white canes and balloons.

Special invitation
You are invited to a Bethel Lions Club Informational Meeting and Free Dinner at the Methodist Church on Main Street on Wednesday, Oct. 19, from 6 to 6:30 p.m. Social hour (no alcohol) and 6:30 p.m. dinner. No reservations required. For more information: call Ed or Gert Friel at 824-2107.

AUTUMN ON MAIN STREET

(Top) The 2005 Jeep Jamboree drew more than 100 Jeeps to Bethel the weekend of Oct. 1 for off-roading treks throughout the area. On one morning, Doug and Jodie Wilson led the Jeepers in the annual parade down Main Street before heading out for a day of riding. (Left) Flower season is winding down, and the volunteers who tend the flora on Bethel's traffic island have been putting on the final touches before winter. Here, Carol Nielsen trims flowers at the top of Main Street. Nielsen said more volunteers are needed to help out for next season.

From the Oxford County Democrats

The Oxford County Democrats held a fundraising supper for REACH, the Oxford County agency providing services to victims of sexual violence on Friday, Sept. 30, with Maine Attorney General Steve Rowe as the guest of honor and speaker. Members of the First Congregational Church of South Paris contributed to the success of the event by preparing a meal at cost, allowing the donation to REACH to be just under $400.

In his remarks, Rowe recognized the work of REACH for services to victims of sexual violence and for the education of law enforcement and medical personnel as well as the general public.

Democratic County Chairperson Cathy Newell singled out Marge Medd and Roy Gedat for recognizing the financial need of REACH and suggesting that the Democrats select the group for a fundraising dinner. REACH Executive Director Shari Smith recognized the work of Medd and of Bill Stockwell of Waterford who were present at the dinner for their work in helping the agency to move to a firm financial situation over the past six months.

Recipients of donations from the Oxford County Democrats have included New York City Firefighters, Paperworkers in Millinocket during the shutdown, the town of Canton, the roof fund of the Locke Mills Legion, and currently the Veterans for Peace Hurricane Relief Fund. Collection for the Hurricane Relief is occurring at the Democrat's Fryeburg Fair booth in Expo 5.

From the Western Mountains Senior College

Aging Well Conference Elmer and Fern Brown of Wells will challenge participants to think outside the box as they present an interactive workshop "Mind Games" at the Aging Well community conference on Saturday, Oct. 29 from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Crescent Park School. The conference is co-sponsored by Western Mountains Senior College (WMSC) and SAD44 Adult Education and is open to the community.

Fern Brown, co-director of Maine Adventures in Creativity, sponsors of Odyssey of the Mind in Maine and her husband, Elmer, a long-time volunteer and coach with the program, instruct at York County Senior College. Their course on Mind Games was an effort to bring Odyssey of the Mind-type challenge to seniors. Their senior students were so excited about the class that they formed the first-ever senior citizen team to compete and win Odyssey of the Mind World Finals in Boulder, Colo., in May 2005.

The Browns said participants in their workshop will open their minds to their own capabilities and, most of all, will laugh. One of the great accomplishments that came out of their team's participation in Mind World Finals was that the young people with whom they spoke said they would never look at their grandparents the same way again. The Browns hope participants in their workshop will not look at themselves in the same way either. "Exercising the brain, especially the right side of the brain, is as important as exercising the body," they said.

The conference will open with a keynote talk, "Confessions of an Aging Couch Potato" by Kali Lightfoot, executive director, National Resource Center for Osher Lifelong Learning Institute, Portland.

Other workshops scheduled include the following: Sexuality and Aging, Love Never Dies by Wendy Iseman, MSW; Sensible Eating in the 21st Century by Dr. Richard DeCarolis, DO and Cathi DiCocco; Taking the 'Old' Out of Aging by Sandi Kottman, RN; Finding Balance, Gaining Strength by Louisa Abarro, LMT and Betty Foster, MPH; The Four Dimensions of Healing by Cate Journey, LCSW; and Exploring Different Paths to Spirituality in Aging by Sharon Lyon, Certified LMT, Keven Pennell, Reiki Master, and John Russell, retired Congregational clergyman.

Although WMSC members must be age 50 and over, this conference is open to anyone interested through the co-

From the Oxford Hills AARP

On Dec. 16, the Oxford Hills Chapter of the AARP is participating in an enjoyable day trip to Portland to see "The Magic of Christmas" show at the Merrill Auditorium.

You will leave the old Ames Plaza at 8 a.m. and spend the morning shopping at the Maine Mall or at the Christmas Tree Shop.

Lunch at noon will be included at the Olde Country Buffet at the mall.

The 2 p.m. afternoon performance of "The Magic of Christmas" is an extravagant celebration of the holiday with breathtaking scenery as well as traditional carols, seasonal favorites and festive spirit.

The cost is $68 and includes the bus, lunch, and the show. The $30 deposit is due now with the $38 balance to be paid by Nov. 11. Call Henrietta or Wally Taft to reserve your seat (743-6722) and mail check to: Walter Taft, 1024 Gore Road, Otisfield, ME 04270. Assigned seating is in order of deposit received.

From S.C.O.R.E.

The Oxford Hills and Western Mountain SCORE chapters have scheduled workshops in Business Planning for Business Start-ups that will be offered during November at the Telstar Regional High School, under the auspices of the SAD44 Adult Education Program at 824-2780. Workshops will be held on successive Wednesday evenings.

Workshop schedule: Preparing a Business Plan: Wednesday, Nov. 2; Marketing: Wednesday, Nov. 9; Cash Flow Projection: Wednesday, Nov. 16; and Financing a Small Business: Wednesday, Nov. 30.

Workshop content has been structured to provide valuable information and assistance in writing a business plan, basic market research, projecting cash flow and obtaining financing for a new business. Writing a good business plan and understanding marketing and the details of cash flow and finances are vital to the success of any new business.

The fee for the four-session workshop is $45 and includes participation by one business partner or spouse. Advance registration and payment with the Oxford Hills SCORE Chapter at 743-0499 or Western Mountain SCORE Chapter at 369-9976 is required.

ANDOVER ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NEWS

Ms. Rossignol's Kindergarten class had a chance to soak up some recently as they visited Cooper Farms Apple Orchards in West Paris. The students were able to pick their own apples as they listened to instructions on how this process should be done. Afterwards, they visited the farm stand where they saw first hand how products are purchased and distributed throughout the community. They even had a chance to see the machinery used by the apple orchard. This was a great learning experience and a special time for each and every one of them.

On September 30 the fifth graders from Andover Elementary School hiked Whitecap. The hike is a tradition for the fifth graders. Discussions on the hike centered around topics such as glacial action, early settlements, pitcher plants, erosion, and the location of landmarks seen from the summit. Pictured here are the fifth graders along with the chaperones who attended.

On September 15 and 16 the fifth graders from Andover and Woodstock participated in an overnight training program at Camp Susan Curtis. The students worked on listening skills, cooperation, trust, and self esteem. Pictured here is Jennalee Putnam trying to navigate a low ropes course while the rest of the A.E.S. fifth graders spot for her.

Recently the fifth grade class of Andover Elementary pitched in with the school cook, Dee Nedeau, and baked some chocolate chip cookies. The fifth graders had just finished a unit on invertebrates so they celebrated by collecting some crickets and adding them to the recipe. Pictured here are Cody Smith, Autumn Berry, and Courtney Hentschel.

CRESCENT PARK SCHOOL NEWS

The students at CPS recently enjoyed sharing their classrooms with grandparents on Grandparent's day. Pictured are Marta Opie and her surrogate Grammy. Students demonstrated their skills in such activities as reading, puzzle-making, math, reading or science.

The students at CPS recently celebrated "Grandparents' Day" by inviting grandparents and special friends to share their school day for a few hours in the morning. Here, first grader Grady Harrington reads to his grandmother while other classmates demonstrate their skills in puzzle making, math, reading, or science.

Fall is the time for a study of life cycles in first grade. On those years when we are lucky, we have the opportunity to witness the magical metamorphosis of a Monarch caterpillar into a butterfly as part of this study. Here, Kimberly Drew prepares to release "Eaty", the caterpillar/butterfly who shared her metamorphosis with Mrs. DeCarolis' first grade, while her classmates look on.

Students in Mrs. Salway's grade one class at Crescent Park School are shown with their classroom constitution that was written as a class-shared writing project. James Haines and Kody Verrill are holding a reproduction of the real constitution. On the recent constitution day, the class also read an autographed copy of the book, Marshall, the Courthouse Mouse.

WOODSTOCK ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NEWS

Students from Mrs. Burke's third grade class at Woodstock Elementary School counted the donations collected by the school's penny drive to help the victims of Hurricane Katrina. One WES pupil, 9 year-old Rachael Boyd, had been saving her money for about four months to buy a game she wanted. But, after Katrina, Rachael donated all $27 she had saved to the relief effort. She said the hurricane victims needed it more than she did.

From the Bethel Historical Society's Regional History Center

Don Cyr, director of the Musée culturel du Mont-Carmel in Lille, project scholar for the Maine Humanities Council's portion of the Maine barn exhibit to accompany the Smithsonian Institution's traveling exhibition "Barn Again! Celebrating an American Icon" and a Ph. D. graduate student at the University of Maine (Orono), will be the featured speaker on the final day of the barn exhibit, Oct. 22 at 2 p.m. in the Bethel Historical Society's O'Neil Robinson House. Speaking on Aroostook County barns, he will present a slide lecture presenting details of various examples in "the County" and compare and contrast them with those in the rest of the state. Cyr's appearance is sponsored in part by a grant from the Maine Humanities Council. The lecture is free and open to all interested persons. Refreshments will follow the lecture.

2005 Annual Fund

During September 2005, the Bethel Historical Annual Fund Committee, chaired by Trustee John B. Head with members Alden Kennett, Arlan Jodrey, Dorothy Bartlett and Danna Nickerson, launched the 2005 Annual Fund Campaign. Last year's campaign was the most successful in the society raising a record $24,278 with a record 452 donors. Proceeds from these gifts help the society strengthen its programming and exhibits as well as assisting in maintaining buildings and collections. Gifts to the society are tax deductible as allowable by law and may be given in any amount and in a variety of ways, be it cash, stock, personal property, securities, bonds, etc. Those wanting further information should call the society at (800) 824-2908 or 824-2908. All gifts should be sent to the society at P.O. Box 12, Bethel, ME 04217-0012.

To date over $11,000 from 167 donors has been received. AIRMEN

High School Boys' Varsity Soccer

Telstar 2, Dirigo 1; Oct. 7— Telstar's Matt Zinchuk and Dan Kiesel scored goals in a win over Dirigo. Goalie Stephen Scotti had four saves. The Rebels outshot Dirigo, 19-6.

Telstar 2, Lisbon 1 (OT); Oct. 5— Telstar's Max Meader and Louis Thornton scored goals in an overtime win over Lisbon. Thornton's goal with 50 seconds left in OT gave the Rebels the victory. He also had an assist. Telstar outshot Lisbon, 23-6.

High School Varsity Field Hockey

Telstar 3, Hall-Dale 1; Oct. 7— Telstar's Danna Wilson, Kayla Mills, and Whitney Mills scored goals in a win over Hall-Dale. Kelsey Dole had an assist. Telstar outshot Hall-Dale 24-4.

Telstar 7, Jay 1; Oct. 5— Telstar's Mallory Brown scored three goals and Liz Rosenberg, Kayla Mills, Chea Davis and Jillian Kimball one each in a win over Jay. Brown and Mills each had two assists and Davis and Whitney Mills oneeach. Goalie Stephanie Tripp had one save in goal, as the Rebels outshot Jay 24-3.

Varsity Girls' Soccer

Gould 2, Kents Hill 1; Oct. 8— Gould defeated Kents Hill on a rainy, cold day. Gould led at the half 1-0 and quickly went up 2-0 in the second half. Kents Hill then scored (about half way through the 2nd half) to bring the score to 2-1. There were many close scoring opportunities by both teams as the game wore on, but Gould scored their third goal of the game with three seconds remaining to clinch the victory. Goalies: Brittany Rogers, Molly Spadone. Scoring: Maddie Cave, Brittany then Heather Kelleher - her scoring opportunity came off of a goal kick (with 10 seconds remaining in game) which she received out of the air and quickly converted to a lofted shot on goal, which dropped over the keepers head. Notable play by Molly Fitzgerald and Jen Guneyli.

Boys' J.V. Soccer

Telstar 1, Lisbon 1; Oct. 5— Telstar's Chris Schwartz scored the Rebel goal unassisted while the offense kept the pressure on throughout the game. Andy Whitney did a fine job in goal with nine saves, backed up by the intense Rebel defense. Due to some JV injuries, Varsity players Kevin Gallagher and Terry Gordon played defense, adding to the efforts of Deegan Conrad, Patrick Gallagher, AJ hebert, and Jen Aldrich.

Holderness 5, Gould 0; Oct. 5—Gould faced Holderness and although outnumbered 2 to 1, it was not apparent until the last few minutes when the players were playing with heart, but exhausted, due to the opponents doing entire line changes. JiHo played incredibly hard chasing down there fresh offenders time and time again to prevent breakaways. Owen played all but a few minutes of the game running then entire time, and being present for many critical plays.

Gould JV(B)Boys' Soccer

Gould 0, Hebron 6; Oct 5 —The lone Gould Academy goal was scored by Jun Lee, assisted by Tim Hsu. Gould played with just 2 substitutes and put up a valiant fight, but the lack of depth was too much to overcome towards the end of the contest.

TMS J.V. Soccer

TMS 3, Jay 0; Oct. 6— TMS continued its impressive play. Two goals by Danny Whitney and one by Andrew Sprague were the difference in the game. Assists were from Tyler Brown and Casey Thornton. Another shut out in goal from Daniel Vaughn. Great team efforts from Austin Jodrey, Michael Corriveau, Jacob Wakefield, Devin Vail, Jared Rice, Samantha Southam, Mike Black, Nicena Walker, Ben Field, Keegan Hutchinson, Tremt Bonney, and James Piccirillo. This team has improved so much and is playing so well right now, they are a real treat to watch play.— coach Mark Kenney

TMS 3 Dirigo 0; Oct. 4— TMS continued their strong play, defeating Dirigo 3-0. Great job in goal by Daniel Vaughn and Tyler Brown who combined for the shut out. Superior defense was put forth by Austin Jodrey, Jacob Wakefield, and Michael Corriveau. Goals were scored by Tyler Brown, and with their firsts of the season, Andrew Sprague and Keegan Hutchinson. Assists were by Danny Whitney and Mike Black. Great hustle from Devin Vail, Samantha Southam, Jared Rice, Nicena Walker, Casey Thornton, and Ben Field. — coach Mark Kenney

Denny Breau Trio Opens Series

The Denny Breau Trio will be performing in Bethel on October 20 at 7:30 PM as the opening concert of Gould Academy's Performing Arts Series.

Led by Lewiston native Denny Breau on guitar vocals, the band is an excellent blend of country, bluegrass, rock, blues and jazz. Denny has performed extensively throughout New England and the United States and is a recent inductee into Maine's country music hall of fame. Jim McLaughlin on piano, vocals and accordion, and Tom Zicarelli on saxophones and harmonica fill out the trio. McLaughlin and Zicarelli have also performed throughout New England and the U.S. They share many years of playing experiences together in various rock and jazz groups. Guest musicians, Frank Coffin on bass guitar and drummer Don Cote will join this musically eclectic trio for the evening as they perform originals and covers ranging from Merle Haggard to the Allman Brothers to Lyle Lovett to the Beatles.

Community members are cordially invited to attend. The concert will be held in Bingham Hall on the Gould Academy campus. Ticket prices are $6, adults and $4, students and are available at the door. For more information, please call 207 824-3575.

REAL ESTATE AND YOU CHILDREN AND MOVES

When you have to make a move, it is important to engage your children in the process. Moving can create concern and anxiety for children that their parents may not realize right away. It usually means leaving favorite playmates, going to a new school, and uncertainty about what the new neighborhood will be like.

Include everyone in the discussions about the move, and invite the children to participate in house hunting trips. Work with a realtor who is comfortable with children and sensitive to their needs, and stay alert to dealing with their concerns.

Small children can be drawn into the process of showing the house by keeping their toys and clothes picked up. Teenagers may be especially sensitive about strangers invading their space and may resist making that space "show well". It is important that all of the family members are prepared to cooperate and contribute to a successful transaction.

For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling real estate, contact Cindy Hiebert at Mahoosuc Realty, 207-824-2771

BEFORE BUYING A HOME!

Where do you start when you are ready to buy a home? Before you begin looking for a home, you have to make some decisions. You need to decide what is important to you when purchasing your home. Before starting out on your home search it is a good idea to sit down and develop a list of what is important and what you would like in your new home. Your list could include schools, neighborhood, amenities, number of bedrooms, number of baths, a basement, a separate dining room, 2-story family room or foyer, one level ranch plan, master bedroom on the main level, special financing, seller willing to cover closing costs and the list goes on and on.

An experienced buyer real estate agent can help you through the process. There is no such thing as a perfect house, therefore once you have developed your list you should begin to prioritize it. You can prioritize into, "must have", "should have" and "would be nice to have". By having a clear understanding what you want in your new home, and the priority of those items, you will be in a much better position to decide whether you want to put an offer on a house you see and like. It is also a good idea to consider whether you want to purchase a new or pre-owned home.

Eight and a half acres with 450 ft. of road frontage, a long brook boundary on one side and cleared fields for a choice of building sites. This lot is both large & pretty! $69,900

MT. ABRAM SKIWAY, GREENWOOD: Within view of Mt. Abram Ski Area, this almost one acre lot has a beautiful brook boundary. Walk to the lodge or drive only ten short miles to Sunday River Skiway. Build your dream house and ski both resorts! $39,900

Church St, Bryant Pond: Sit on the front sunporch & read a good book or relax on the back deck overlooking the garden area, woods and small brook. This full two-story 3BR, 2 bath family home has new roof shingles, convenient to town amenities & just "down the road" from Lake Christopher's public boat launch. More lakes & winter skiing are only four miles further, so don't wait on this one! $149,900

Saunders Rd, Woodstock: Solitude awaits you as you climb to the top of Eagles Nest Subdivision to a cozy one room camp with unbelievable views of Shag Pond! Surrounded by 5 wooded acres, this camp also has the beginning of a nice deck to relax on and enjoy the view of Bald Mountain. No power or running water, this camp is for those that truly enjoy all that nature has to offer. Fantastic hiking trail within walking distance, also, excellent fishing in nearby Shag Pond. This one is a "must-see" $69,900

Oak Hill, Bryant Pond: Spectacular home, spectacular views, spectacular price! Quiet location perched high on a hill, with Lake Christopher's mtns. spread out below. Custom built brand new home w/ceiling air windows, fireplace, designer tiled floors, kitchen cooking island, granite countertops, bedrooms w/trench doors, solarium, radiant floor heating system & so much more. Conveniently located in our lakes region, just off the main road leading to Bethel & ski resorts. This one HAS to be seen! $329,000

Mt. Abram Skiway, Greenwood: This unique multi level ski chalet has a large adorable kitchen w. island & dining area, living room w/hearth, cathedral ceilings, 2 nice bedrooms, family room, loft, ad'l'l bonus guest loft, and lots of room for overnight company! It's newly remodeled including new kitchen counter-top, recessed lighting, tiled entry, clipboard siding, metal roof & more. It's adjacent to a popular downhill ski area, cross country ski trails, snowmobile territory, & has a nice pine wooded backyard. This is NOT a "drive by" - call us today to take an inside look! $159,900

Mud Pond, Greenwood: Views of Mud Pond from the deck & a nice high, wooded lot make this 3BR, 1 bath home worth a look. Split-level house started as a mobile home but you'll never know it w/ partially finished basement and other updates. Very convenient commute to either the Norway/Paris or Bethel areas. "away from it all" near the pond, but still within town distance. Make an appointment today. $169,000

Lake Christopher, Bryant Pond: Stunning sandy WATERFRONT property with immaculate house, garage & grounds! Rarely does a house on the shores of Lake Christopher come up for sale, and rarely one of this caliber. Three beautiful pine BR's, 2 baths, cathedral ceilings, pegged wood floors, sunny skylights, finished basement family room, lots of windows overlooking the lake, flowering perennials, and attention to detail everywhere. Open front yard gently slopes to the lake & dock, with plenty of room for boats & patio seating at the water's edge. Make an appointment today for a tour of this most as a pin, beautiful property. $259,000

Gore Rd, Woodstock: This sunny & cheerful 2-yr-old home sits on a serene 11 acre setting with woods, fields, views & a babbling brook. 3BR's, 2 full baths, cathedral ceilings, kitchen w/ island, lots of large windows, a big screened porch, deck, jacuzzi tub & lots more! You'll be captivated by the beauty of the land and acreage and also by the charm of this new house. Location is easily accessible from major routes and "on the way" to all recreational and ski resorts in the area. Make an appointment today! $329,000

Richardson Hollow, Greenwood: If you're looking for a house with acreage, in a great spot, with lots of personality, then this is the one! 30 ACRES of woods and fields and a 24BR, 1 & 1/2 bath home with post and beam construction, exposed log beams, pine flooring, rock hearth, 2 decks, unique staircase, stained glass, cathedral ceiling and lots more! Very convenient to the Norway/Paris shopping area, the Greenwood lakes region, and to Bethel's ski and recreational resorts. You'll love the sunny, high windows and the open concept of this house, so call us today! $192,000

Route 26, Main St, Greenwood: WATERFRONT buildings and land for sale plus an island! Highly visible commercial building, with expansive and elevated parking lot, currently leased to a popular restaurant and also currently housing a small manufacturing enterprise. Combined with the adjacent 1BR residential home, this gorgeous waterfront on Round Pond totals over 1000 sq. ft. of water frontage. Lots of potential for either a successful business plan, residential blueprint or recreation. I can show you the beautiful shoreline, talk to you about the possibilities and start planning! $399,000

Main Street (Route 26) Bryant Pond: Everyone knows this popular business and now it can be yours! Busy 20 seat diner, pizza parlor, ice cream shop and convenience store being sold along with the 2BR home next door. Take over this successful venture (including equipment) which has a famous local food reputation & a location not far from the lake that provides proximity to stop any season for a new owner to take it to the next level. Rental income from adjacent house makes the numbers work even better. Inquire today. $275,000

THE REV. JOY GASTA

The Rev. Joy Gasta died on Oct. 2, 2005 at the Nashville Hospice after a courageous battle with cancer. She had served the West Paris and Norway Unitarian Universalist churches for the past ten years.

She graduated from Berea College and received a master's degree from the University of Chicago. She then graduated from Harvard Divinity School and was ordained at the Norway Universalist Church on Oct. 29, 1995.

She was a friend to all and enjoyed her work with the Maine Council of Churches and the Oxford County Ministers' Association.

She is survived by two daughters, Katherine of Washington, D.C., and Rachel of New York. She has two sisters and a twin brother in Nashville, Tenn.

Her family gathered around to help care for her and were with her at the hospice at the time of her death.

She will be greatly missed by her parishioners and her many friends in New England.

Resolutions of Respect

Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father to call our beloved Brother T. Richard Carter, from our midst in view of the loss in our Grange and Community.

Therefore, be it resolved that it is a just and fitting tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting his passing, we mourn for one who served faithfully, cheerfully and diligently for many years, his grange and his community and will be sorely missed by all.

Therefore, be it further resolved that we spread a copy of these resolutions on our records, have a copy printed in the Bethel Citizen, and a copy sent to his family. Alder River Grange #145 extends its sympathy to the bereaved family.

Committee of Resolutions:

Nancy H. Mercer

Dustin Howe

James Lowe

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

RONALD ALAN DYKE

Ronald Alan Dyke, 65, of Bethel, husband of Brenda-Marie (Barker) Dyke, died Thursday, Oct. 6, 2005 at a Portland hospital.

He was born in Littleton, N.H., on Feb. 19, 1940, the son of Howard L. and Grace (Johnson) Dyke.

He was a U.S. Army veteran, serving his country from 1959 to 1961.

He worked at various jobs and worked in the woods as a woodsman for many years.

Ronald was an outdoorsman, enjoying hunting, fishing, trapping, camping, farming and also enjoying wood-working. He was always willing to help people (he was helping even in death as an organ donor), was always joking and making people laugh, and was a 4-H leader for more than 35 years.

He lived for his family, especially his grandchildren.

Survivors include his wife of 44 years, Brenda-Marie (Barker) Dyke of Bethel; two sons, Darrell and his wife Tobin of Starks, and Dana and his wife Sheila of Albany; one daughter, Dottie Kelly and her husband Mike of Bethel; two brothers, Howard Dyke Jr. of Norway, and Henry Dyke of Limerick; three sisters, Margaret Dyke and Donna Dyke, both of Rumford, and Debbie Johnson of Carthage; nine grandchildren, Cricket "Crick" Kelly, Michael "Buddy" Kelly, Allison "Fredy" Kelly and Jessica "Squezzil" Kelly, all of Bethel, Leland Dyke and Aidan Dyke, both of Starks, and Dyanna-Marie Dyke, David Dyke and Daniel Dyke, all of Albany; many nieces and nephews; as well as his dog, Shelby. He was predeceased by his parents; one brother, Leland; and one sister, Barbara Thomas.

Graveside services will be held at East Bethel Cemetery, Middle Intervale Road, Bethel, at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, with the Rev. Lloyd Waterhouse officiating. Memorials in his memory are suggested to either the American Heart Association, Maine Affiliate Inc., 343 Gorham Road, South Portland, ME 04106 or to the American Diabetes Association, N.E. Division, 163 Lancaster Street, Portland, ME 04101.

RUTH B. CURTIS
Ruth B. Curtis, 83, of Skowhegan, died Oct. 6, 2005 at Stephens Memorial Hospital in Norway following a long illness.

She was born in North Waterford on June 19, 1922, a daughter of Henry S. and Frances G. (McAllister) Bennett.

She was educated in the schools of Bethel and graduated from UMF in 1976 with a bachelor of science degree in elementary education.

She married Ervil Curtis on Sept. 2, 1945. He died on March 15, 1996.

She first taught school in Lovell, Bridgton, Cornville, Lubec and Newry. Later, she worked many years in the Skowhegan and Waterville area as a nurse, retiring in 1984.

She was a member of the VFW Auxiliary in Skowhegan,

D.A.R., Maine State Teachers Retirement Association, and the Federated Church of Skowhegan.

She enjoyed listening to tape-recorded story books. Ruth loved to travel and enjoyed being with children.

She is survived by two daughters, Linda C. Westleigh and her husband Reginald of West Bethel; Nadine K. Hughes and her husband David of Poland; two sons, Henry E. Curtis and his wife Louisa of Warren, Mass., and Arthur L. Curtis and his wife Joyce of Skowhegan; a sister, Isabelle Bennett of Lexington, Mass.; 11 grandchildren; and several great-grandchildren. She was predeceased by her sister, Alice; and a daughter, Donna Gray.

Graveside services will be held 11 a.m., Oct. 15, at the Sunset View Cemetery in Norridgewock on Route 2, with the Rev. Mark Tanner officiating. Friends wishing may make a donation in her memory to the Maine Diabetes Association, Portland Office, Portland, ME 04101.

T. RICHARD CARTER

T. Richard Carter, 90, of Bethel, died Friday, Oct. 7, 2005 at Stephens Memorial Hospital, following a mercifully short battle with cancer.

He was born in Bethel on Nov. 3, 1914, the son of Edward Augustus Carter and Fannie Mae Capen Carter. He attended Bethel schools and graduated from Gould Academy in 1933.

In later years when reflecting on his life, his favorite memories were of working in the woods camps in and around the environs of northern Oxford and Franklin counties.

He was a Teamster, a bookkeeper, and from 1940 to 1942, worked as a scalar and river drive foreman for the Brown Co. in Kennebago.

In 1942, he bought the family farm in Middle Intervale, which had been in the Carter family for five generations. He was a dairy farmer and a careful steward of his woodland.

He served as Bethel selectman for one term and also served on several school committees. He was a community committeeman on the ASCS. He took great pride in being a tree farmer.

He is survived by his sons, Thomas of Bethel, Timothy and wife Jo-Ellen, also of Bethel, David and wife Ann of Oxford, and Stephen and wife Donna of Rumford Center; 11 grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by his wife of 65 years, Lyndell Cotton Carter, who died Oct. 31, 2002; three brothers, "Gus," Stanley and Paul; and one sister, Rebecca Bailey.

His sons remember his favorite saying, "I don't want to tell you how to do it, but if you were to ask me, then I would do it this way." He'd then proceeded to tell them exactly how he'd do it. He was always the boss. They also remember how he loved to garden and give the vegetables to family, friends and neighbors. He lived to work.

A memorial service will be held in November.

RAYMOND C. BONNEY

Raymond Carl Bonney, 42, of Bryant Pond, died unexpectedly Saturday, Oct. 8, 2005 at Stephens Memorial Hospital.

He was born in Norway on July 3, 1963, the son of Carl Raymond and Allene (Morgan) Bonney and was educated in local schools.

He worked as a logger for many years and was an avid fisherman, and loved music.

He is survived by his parents of Bryant Pond; two sons, Joseph Marshall of West Bethel and Joshua Bonney of Bryant Pond; one daughter, Starr Bonney of Newry; one brother, Larry Bonney and his wife Elsie of Bethel; two sisters, Julie Cummings and her husband Michael and Kathy Scherf and her husband Robert, all of Bryant Pond; one granddaughter, Dawn Buck of Newry; many nieces and nephews; and a special friend, Margaret Roberts of Bryant Pond. He was predeceased by two brothers, Christopher and Russell.

Private burial will be in the Pleasant Pond Cemetery, Sumner.

CHARLES E. KINGMAN

Charles (Charlie) E. Kingman, 66, died Sunday, Oct. 9, 2005 at Stephens Memorial Hospital, Norway.

Born in Somerville, Charles lived in Warren, N.J., for 16 years before moving to North Branch, N.J., 40 years ago. He served in the U.S. Army, 82nd Airborne Division from 1957 to 1960. He was the owner/operator of North East Steel Erectors, Inc. North Branch, for 25 years before retiring in 2003.

Charles belonged to the Ironworkers Union, Local 480, Elizabeth, American Legion, Post 284, Whitehouse and was a lifelong member of the National Rifle Association.

He enjoyed traveling, especially to his second house in Bethel and was an avid big game hunter. He raced at Flemington Speedway for several years and was the owner of Diamond #1 Racing.

Surviving are his loving companion of ten years, "Martha" Jane Brown; his loving daughter, Jacqueline Kilpatrick of Idaho; his loving sons, David Charles and daughter-in-law Tracy, and Danny of North Branch; five grandchildren; his loving father, William P. of Martinsville; two brothers, Bill and sister-in-law Gladys Mae, and Albert and sister-in-law Daria, all of Warren; two sisters, Elaine Johnson and brother-in-law Arthur of Bethel, Pa., and Irene Marsh and brother-in-law Douglas of Martinsville; several nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of friends. He was preceded in death by his mother, Esther Mae Mason Kingman in 1995 and his foster brother, Charles Drenkhahn in 2004.

Funeral services will begin at 11 a.m. Friday, Oct. 14, at the Branchburg Funeral Home, 910 US Highway 202 South, Branchburg, N.J. Visitation hours are Thursday from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. and Friday from 10 to 11 a.m. at the funeral home. Interment will be at Mt. Horeb Methodist Cemetery, Warren, N.J. Memorial contributions in Charlie's memory may be made to the North Branch Volunteer Fire Dept., Route 28, North Branch, NJ 08876.
